WINTER DINNER MEETING IS SCHEDULED

A Successful Fall Conference

We wish to extend our thanks to the presenters who provided conference goers with information regarding Restorative Justice principles and current practices. Additionally, we would also like to thank all those in attendance, and the St. Paul Women's Consortium for providing the space. Evaluation feedback included:

- Offered good variety
- Nice blend of information
- The room was too small but very interesting day
- Overall ratings included above average and excellent

We encourage those interested to contact your local police department or the Department of Corrections if you are interested in learning of Restorative Justice Programs in your county.

The MAWCJ Board Comment Corner

The MAWCJ Board Members wish to welcome Therese Rau as the new president of MAWCJ. Therese is our former Vice-President. Tracy Wilson's tenure as president ended fall 2002, and we will miss her good humor and contributions to this organization. All of the MAWCJ board wish Tracy well and we look forward to seeing her at future conferences and dinner meetings.

*We also wish to welcome our other new members:
Deanna Alvord, Vice President
Julie Lee
Tina Wood
Carol Moore*
