MAWCJ Creates Forum for Resource Sharing

One of the goals of MAWCJ is to facilitate networking among women in criminal justice. In an effort to do this more effectively, we are bringing back our quarterly newsletter using our email listserv. We welcome all ideas, topics, and news items relevant to our members. Should you have information to include in the quarterly newsletter, please contact a board member. Every effort will be made to include the information in the following Quarterly Newsletter.

We would like to take the time during each quarter to request specific resources on a chosen topic. For the end of 2004, we would like to explore the housing resources used by our members. As Minnesota winter begins, our clients have a more immediate need for safe and warm housing. Please send your housing resource lists to Sara Nieling at snieling@fcsmn.org or PO Box 4102 ~ St. Paul, MN 55104. The lists will be compiled and distributed during the next month.

Should you need to change your contact information or should you choose to remove yourself from the MAWCJ listserv, please contact Julie Pribil at julie.a.pribil@co.hennepin.mn.us.
